B. April 15 Virtual Vote- Approved Curriculum

Discussion: Desiree Payne advised curriculum was approved.

C. TOP Code Changes

Discussion: Desiree Payne reminded committee members TOP code changes are considered curriculum changes and in order to change the TOP code assigned to curriculum a proposal must be submitted for approval in order for the change to be submitted to the state. Payne noted the state inventory is what drives data in state, regional, district, and SDCE reports.

D. Culinary Curriculum

1. FDNT 661 Baking & Pastry Fundamentals Essentials
2. Intro to Hospitality & Food Industry

Discussion: Payne reported the curriculum was pulled from the March District Curriculum Instructional Council (CIC) meeting for discussion, a subject area meeting occurred in April [2020] and an additional meeting was held to review and discuss SDCE and college curriculum and discuss program pathways. Payne reported as a result of the last meeting questions and concerns were addressed, college faculty had recommended minor title change to the proposed FDNT 661 course and minor title to the Intro to Hospitality certificate program, no issue with the recommended title changes from SDCE program faculty. Megan Leppert reported on the last meeting discussion and explained the college rationale for their recommended title changes. Payne noted the curriculum is on the May 14 District CIC meeting agenda for review/approval. Gholson advised the committee should vote on the title changes.
